Story Saloon

Let your story be heard.

Tall tale, short tale – we believe everyone has a tale to tell.

It could be about your first date, your boss or even the traffic. Take to the stage and tell a story at Story Saloon!

You will have 5 minutes to woo the audience. No reading or ranting please. Bring all your friends because THEY will get to decide who's going to be the next great storyteller of Singapore!

Winners from each session will face off in a Grand Final on 26 March 2010. Attractive prizes and dining vouchers from timbré to be won!

To take part, email your name, contact number and Story Saloon date to storysaloon@toph.com.sg. For more information, visit www.theartshouse.com.sg. Follow us on Twitter at www.twitter.com/storysaloon and be a fan of Story Saloon on Facebook!

The Story Saloon is part of the Singapore International Story Telling Festival.
